Code of Conduct

The East River Soccer Association is concerned about the conduct of all coaches, referees, players and parent/spectators during games at all levels.

We want to ensure that all games are fair, positive and enjoyable for all children and adults involved. A soccer game should be friendly and unifying – a spirited social and athletic occasion for players, coaches, referees and parent/spectators. To clarify, we expect all participants to conform to this code of conduct.

All are expected to be a positive role model and set the standard for sportsmanship. We should be instilling a passion for the game and enjoyment of the event. No profanity, abusive language, rude gestures will be tolerated. No abuse mentally, verbally or physically will be tolerated.

All participants, including parents, are expected to have basic knowledge of the game. Coaches and Referees are expected to pursue an education that will help best develop our players. Referees are to be treated with respect. They control the field. Players may ask for clarification of a call (this is a learning league). However, no one may harass, abuse or berate a referee for any reason.

In particular for coaches ERSA leagues are learning leagues. Players should experience all positions and must play at least half a game during all games.

During the game there is no reason to address the referee at all. Save any discussion until after the game and remain calm and patient.

In particular for parents/spectators

Please remain on the sidelines; do not sit with the team or behind the goals.

Do not enter the field of play without the referee's permission.

Respect the coach, your child and their teammates. Cheer in a positive manner and encourage. Do not coach from the sidelines, allow the coaches to do their job, even if you disagree.

Please carefully weigh the risks of soccer and accept the risks. Do not promote a "victim mentality." Soccer is a physical sport; familiarize yourself with rules of acceptable play.

Please remember referees are human, mistakes will be made.

Accept that sometimes they are for you and sometimes against you.

If you are unable to control yourself, please watch the game from your car.

I have read and understand the above code of Conduct.
